

Foedus Names Michael Rennell VP of Sales & Marketing

Significant Addition to Leadership Team Supports Increasing Demand for Virtual Infrastructure Technologies & Services

Portsmouth, NH – June 7, 2007 — Foedus, a leader in Virtual Infrastructure technologies and services, has appointed Michael Rennell as Vice President of Sales and Marketing.

With over 25 years of Information Technology experience, Rennell has an extensive history of developing business for both large and emerging businesses, domestically and internationally, including executive sales management of a $250 million international services organization.

As Vice President of Sales, Rennell will guide the global business development and strategic business alliances of the organization while leading the continued growth and market share of the company within the Virtualization industry.

In addition to serving as the senior Foedus Sales executive, Rennell will drive Marketing, with a primary focus on the continued expansion of the Foedus brand as the premier national provider of Virtual Infrastructure professional services.

Michael Reilly, President and CEO of Foedus said, "Mike's addition to the executive team provides the company with the experience and insight required to ensure we continue to strengthen our services delivery nationwide. Foedus will leverage his knowledge to further grow our business alliances and presence in key industries and verticals."

Commenting on his appointment, Rennell notes, "I am thrilled about the opportunity to join Foedus. The company's direction is exciting and the growth potential of Virtualization is unparalleled. The services delivery in the Virtualization space continues to evolve and innovative leaders like Foedus are leading the charge. I look forward to this role and to sharing my experience with the Foedus team."

Prior to joining Foedus Rennell was Vice President, Global Financial Services Solutions for Hexaware Technologies, an international provider of IT and Process outsourcing services. Previously he served as Senior Vice President, Global Sales & Account Management at Linedata Services, a leading provider to global financial institutions.
